The result is an affecting and poignant tale that makes Archie's Way a book to be treasured. The tobacco branch closed down in and we, the Narcissus children, grew up in the shadow of the closing and never had the chance to work. The kitchen buzzed with Hungarian, as the notice on the bulletin board said, because the kitchen workers sat on low stools peeling potatoes with no rotation in sight, and the women who cooked in enormous pots stood on their feet and never sat .
