There's even a map at the beginning of the book that kind of reminded me of the Rainbow Magic books I read when I was younger, lol. The first hundred pages – or more – really failed to 3. I've read so many fantasy books that I'm wary of the characters that are too nice like he .

Axel was a pretty good character whose seemed to know a lot and you could see his side. Literally I loved This is exactly my kind of story! I mean, it's hard to believe she never found the caveat of Taraqans "auctioning" seemingly rubbish junk from other worlds nevermind that many of that rubbish was probably priceless religious artifacts and whatnot as house decoration to be morally wrong, but still believable, given her upbringing. Enlarge cover. Whilst the aim was a good one which fit well with the story I felt the execution of this concept was a little flawed as it became very annoying and in the end distracted me from the story and what was happening. Liam hopped out of the car and peered ahead.
