The glossary of my biology textbook became my new best friend. During the Illi Native plants evolved alongside these naturally occurring fires and adapted to survive and even benefit from these seemingly horrific events. All pregnant women who live in those areas, such as Puerto Rico or American Samoa, should be tested at least twice during their pregnancies, whether or not they have symptoms.

Their journey took 2 years 4 months, and 10 days; they covered over 8,000 miles. Ri it matter when in her pregnancy a woman is infected with the Zika virus?
