I've been a fan of Tiffany King since I picked up her young adult novel Wishing for Someday Soonmore than two years ago. How dare you be anything but unattractive! Thanks for telling us about the problem. Dec20, I love the easy way she makes me fall in love with her characters and her writing style agrees with me very. I suppose it does a fairly effective job of illustrating the cultural differences between a pretentious white frat boy and a teenaged black prostitute, but there's also no discernible plot or character development that stems from their interaction.
