Itfollowsalsoinfamilieswherethisviewisentertainedandcarriedout,th temptation comes, whether it be from the world, the flesh, or the devil, the flimsey barriers of their intellectual faith give way, and down come the poor children, causing scandal and reproach to those whose names they bear, and whose hope and treasure in all sincerity they have doubtless. Are children able to distinguish between that religion which is only an outward form, and that which is a genuine principle in the heart?
